

Verse 2

Dm Eb Bb
I know there's a difference in accidents
Bb Dm
And choices you wish you could change
Dm Bb Cm
And sometimes "I didn't mean to" is true
Cm F Bb
But the damage still looks just the same
Bb Dm Eb
I would've grounded me till I was thirty
Eb Bb
Rach would've probably agreed
Bb Dm Bb
Well, maybe not Rach - he ate half of the evidence
Cm Dm F7
He's not who you want on the jury

Chorus

Bb F Gm
'Cause I can't unspill it, can't unbreak it
Eb Bb
Can't put the toothpaste back
Gm Cm Bb
Can't catch the words once I've let 'em loose
Bb F
And stuff 'em back in the pack
F Eb Bb Gm
But you looked at the mess, then looked at me
Cm Dm
Like somehow I still belonged
Bb Eb
I thought I'd get what I had coming
F Gm
You gave me more than sorry could solve

Bridge

Bb Eb F
Maybe grace ain't pretending
F
That what I did was okay
F Cm
Maybe it's knowing the worst thing I did
Cm
Doesn't get the last thing to say
Gm Cm
Maybe mercy's a doorway
Cm
You hold when I oughta be gone
Bb
And maybe forgiveness ain't fixing the past
Bb
It's giving tomorrow a shot

Final Chorus

F Bb Eb
No, I can't unspill it, can't unbreak it
F Gm Cm
Some things leave a little crack
Cm Bb F
And saying I'm sorry means changing some things
Gm Eb Bb F Gm
Not just wishing I could take 'em back
Gm Cm Dm Gm
You looked at the mess, then looked at me
Gm F
And somehow I still belonged
Gm Cm Dm
I thought I'd get what I had coming
Bb
You gave me somewhere to start
Eb F
Yeah, I came with nothing but sorry
Bb
And you gave me somewhere to start.
